GOALS:

The (RSH 2021) aims to:

- Provide a high scientific program for academics, researchers, postgraduate students from all over the world. The conference agenda includes a variety of majors and specializations that meet in one place to exchange scientific research topics with experts.
- Promote international relations between countries of East Asia, China, the Middle East, Europe, and United States by making Antalya, Turkey the meeting point for researchers in East and West.ba
- Create a scientific environment to display the recent inventions and see what scientists and researchers from other universities reach in the academic fields and in the contemporary methods of teaching.
- Engage graduate students in such conference to enhance their values of creativity and research and to strengthen their confidence through competition and invention and to encourage them to work as a one soul universal team.
- Exchange ideas and experiences between participants from different universities, and research units in the world, which leads to establish strong international relations between researchers through our institution that aims for more cooperation in the future.

Facilities for Researchers:

The management of the conference will provide all the facilities for researches including:

- All sent papers to the conference management will be submitted to the scientific committee for scientific evaluation. All presented papers could be published in an authentic scientific journal after a double-blind review of the journal.

- Conference management will provide services needed to hold a conference such as: conference sessions, providing refreshments during sessions, breaks, and lunch for two days of the conference.
- The conference management will designate a number of hotels with lower prices along with transportation from the hotel to the university and vice versa. The announcement about the hotels will be made in three weeks before the conference to give the participants enough time to reserve the hotel. The conference registration fees include the cost of accommodation for two nights.
